FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Third Annual "Best Places to Work in Indiana" Rankings Announced at Indiana Chamber Awards Dinner

May 7, 2008 (INDIANAPOLIS) : In a repeat performance, investment giant Edward Jones and Schmidt Associates, a full-service architectural firm in downtown Indianapolis, took top honors tonight in the Indiana Chamber of Commerce's third annual "Best Places to Work in Indiana" program. This marks the third time Edward Jones — with 356 branch offices in the state — has finished number one among the large employers, while Schmidt Associates has garnered first place both times its entered the small to medium-sized employer category.

The Indiana Chamber announced rankings for all 66 companies that made the Best Places to Work in Indiana list at an awards dinner at the Indiana Roof Ballroom attended by 800 Hoosier businesspeople. Names of companies on the list had been released February 25. The 2008 program was presented by Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

The honorees were determined through employer reports and comprehensive employee surveys, with winners selected in two categories: small to medium-sized companies of between 25 and 249 employees, and large-sized companies consisting of 250 or more employees. Out-of-state parent companies were eligible to participate if at least 25 full-time employees are in Indiana.

The Best Companies Group has overseen similar programs in 18 other states. ModernThink, LLC, a workplace excellence consulting firm, handled the selection process. The basis for this initiative is Fortune magazine's noted "100 Best Places to Work for" list.

"Three factors stand out as to why Edward Jones and Schmidt Associates top the list," states Indiana Chamber President Kevin Brinegar. "Both are devout in their philosophy and make sure employees are onboard with it. They are also modern in their culture through open communication, making time for fun and encouraging teamwork. And, they foster opportunities for their employees to grow as professionals."

All companies making the list, Brinegar emphasizes, understand how important it is for the success of a business to make employees feel valued. "Each should be very proud of the positive environment they have created."

More information about the Best Places to Work companies is available via a special section of the May/June issue of the Indiana Chamber's BizVoice magazine, a statewide publication released tonight and accessible online at www.bizvoicemagazine.com.

At the dinner, representatives from all designated companies were presented with Best Place to Work awards of excellence. In addition to the BizVoice magazine feature, honorees were also recognized through the statewide media resources of Inside Indiana Business with Gerry Dick. Other program partners are the Indiana Economic Development Corporation, the Indiana State SHRM Council and the Indiana Youth Institute.

All companies that participated in the 2008 Best Places to Work program receive an in-depth evaluation identifying strengths and weaknesses according to their employees. In turn, this report can be used in developing or enhancing employee retention and recruitment programs.
